LOCAL AND GENERAL

—July 28
—Is the date named,
—And it will be a straight democratic primary.
—For first class cigars, go to the barber-shop, Lutesville.
—Mr. Rockwell went to St.
Louis Monday.

—N. E. Hall's 5 cent worsted will surprise you.
—Still they come. You'll find 'em in our announcement column.

—Overshirts of all colors and sizes at N. E. Hall's.

—Mrs. Jaques will make your old hat new. Call and see her.*

—Miss Rosa Fischer invites an inspection of her millinery.

—Well, if the weather doesn't change, spring has come in earnest.

—N. E. Hall's 6 cent Challie sells like hot ginger cakes at election.

—You can see samples of Moore & Holmes work in the Marble Hill Postoffice.

—It is expected that work will begin on the new university building at Columbia in June.

—The Bollinger County Bank buys county warrants and good notes.

—N. E. Hall's is the place to obtain a bargain when you need cheveon.

—A dozen or more Marblehillians went down to the Cape Tuesday to the Odd Fellows' celebration.

—Listen! 4,999 yards of nice prints at N. E. Hall's, only 5 cents a yard.

—Ladies, at Drum's is the place to get a nice shoe and good hose for little money.

—Mr. O'Neal has come to town with his feather renovator, and has something to say to you elsewhere in this issue.

—N. E. Hall's Bedford cord goes like the rest of his goods.
How! Cheap.

—Moore & Holmes of Jackson, Mo., have pitched their Mammoth Photographic tent in Lutesville.

—Ladies' patent leather Oxford ties at N. E. Hall's. Oh, my! How pretty they are.

—Please your wife or sweetheart by buying her an outfit for the summer at Mrs. Jaques', Lutesville.

—Hezekiah Estes has been confined to his bed by a severe paralytical attack for several days. We hope the Judge will soon recover.

—Read and hearken unto the call! 100 ladies vests at N. E.
Hall's, at 10 cents apiece only.

—Gentlemen: When you want a nice spring jersey shirt or a white shirt, Drum's is the place to get them.

—It is estimated that about $50,000 was raised at the annual school election of this state for the Confederate Home at Higginsville.

—First-class dressmaking at Mrs. S. V. Jaques'. Take her your new dress and have it neatly and fashionably made.

—The W. C. T. U. County Convention will be held in the Presbyterian Church, in this place, on the afternoon and evening of the 5th, and morning of the 6th of May. All are invited to attend. Miss Carry Lee Carter and Mrs. Danforth, of Dexter, will deliver lectures.

—N. E. Hall's stock of shoes is complete. Why! Because his entire stock is new. No old stock lying on the shelves.

—The forests adjacent town have donned their coat of green, and afford a picturesque view to those who delight to look upon nature in all her loveliness.

—To the traveling public: Drum's is the place to buy your trunks and valises, as he has them to suit every one.

—Elder S. W. Robinson was visiting among the members of the Christian Church here last week. He gave the people the benefit of three or four sermons while here.

—Go to Mrs. Jaques' for the best gloves, hosiery, flowers, ribbons, or any of the pretty things that stamp a stylish toilet.

—"Ah, spring is here—that is to say, it was here just the other day; But it has gone—that is to say, it has gone just the other day.
And ere this poem may appear, Spring is—is—was—has been—may be—here!"

—Drum's is the place to buy your furniture as he sells cheaper than anybody else, and carries the largest stock in Bollinger County.

—A Clippard's store at Laffin was burglarized Monday night, and goods amounting to probably $100 stolen. Two tramps were arrested on suspicion, but it is not positively known that the officers have the guilty parties.

—Gentlemen, if you want to buy a hand-pegged and sewed shoe go to Drum's, as he has a large stock of the celebrated Giesecke shoes.

—Hons. Geo. T. Lee, candidate for State Senator, and Edward Robb, were here Friday and Saturday, the former in the interest of his own candidacy and the latter in the interest of the candidacy of Attorney-General Wood.

—Drum has the largest stock of Children's, Boys', Youths' and Gents' spring suits in Bollinger County, and sells cheaper than any one else in the county.

—Our poetical sausage machine, affected by the warm weather, is trying its hand at spring poetry this week. See!

Those beautiful birds of spring,
Who in our creeks do sing,
Who have neither fur nor feather, But are the heralds of warm weather,
Are with us once again—For don't you hear them sing?

—Ladies, when you want to buy a nice cashmere or Bedford Chok and Block Satin dress, go to Drum's, as he keeps a large assortment. Also trimmings to suit.

—The republicans of this county held their convention Saturday to select delegates to the State and Congressional conventions. Moses Whybark, J. Monroe Robbins, M. E. Rhodes and Nathan Lloyd were elected delegates to the State convention, and J. W. Caldwell, Henry Elfrank, J. A. Manning, Luther T. Grimsley, J. M. Allen, Randolph James, Dr. Charles A.
Sander, delegates to the Congressional convention, which will be held at Malden, May 7.
A new County central committee was chosen, which was organized by electing J. W. Caldwell, Chairman, and A. J. Bedwell, Secretary. The delegates are not instructed. Resolutions in favor of Harrison's renomination were passed. The attendance at the convention was small, and there was little, if any, interest manifested.

—Bill Stemmer of near Smithville, has moved to town.

—Because we sell Leghorn eggs at so low a price, please don't for a minute entertain the notion they are inferior stock, or mixed. John Luke, Leopold.

—This paper will not be held in any way responsible for the expressions and utterances of correspondents.

—At the rate churches and societies are making headway hereabouts, we surmise that the light is breaking through, and that Bollinger county (at least some parts) will experience a religious quake. Christians are awakening to their duty, and we believe there is more live, active church work going on at the present time than before for years.

—The business hen—the brown leghorn. Eggs for hatching 50 cts per setting of 15. 25 cts for 7 eggs. John Luke, Leopold, Mo.

—Oh, my! did you ever see such a large stock of nice dress goods as Drum has got to select from? He has goods to suit everyone. You can get a nice calico dress for only 5 cents per yard.

—Mr. J. M. Snider announces this week for the office of county judge. Mr. Snider is a good business man and understands the duties of the office. He has had large experience in office before coming to this country, and knows just what it takes to make a good officer. If elected he will make a good judge, and guard well the interests of the county.—Hale County, Texas, Herald.

—My! my! What a pile of Drygoods that man Drum has in his big store! I don't see what he does with them! But they say he sells them, because he sells cheaper than anybody else in the county.

—Under the high pressure of favorable weather our machine has been grinding out poetry by the yard, but we have only space for a gem, or two. "We" know its hard to part with poetry at this season, but you see how it is. The editor was in the Cape, Tuesday taking in the Odd Fellows' celebration, and it was during his absence that "we" were a grindin'.

The beautiful Spring,
When girls and boys
On gates do swing,
Is here.
And, Oh! what gates will break Beneath their weight;
What hinges the repairs will take—Oh, dear—

Public Notice.

To the citizens and voters of Bollinger County: I, the undersigned, having been solicited to offer myself for re-election to the office of County Judge of the Southern District, I deem it my duty to notify my friends through the Press, that I positively will not be a candidate for re-election under any circumstances. I desire to say to my friends of both political parties, who aided me in my election two years ago, that I have served you to the very best of my ability and invite an inspection of my record, and I assure you if any errors are found they are of the head and not of the heart. I feel under deep and lasting obligations to each and all of you for the honor you conferred on me by your support. My business affairs and arrangements are such that I can not offer for re-election, and besides I am no chronic office seeker.

Your friend,
JOHN A. MILLER.

son, Mo., have opened up a branch photographic gallery in Lutesville. It will pay you to go and examine the fine pictures that they are now turning out.

On Monday morning, while Robert Fisher was painting the front of Jesse Lutes' restaurant, not knowing that the carpenters had torn loose part of the scaf-olding, climbed upon his ladder which was placed upon this insecure staging, and just as he was giving the finishing touches down came scaffold, painter and all. Bob fell about fifteen feet, but was only slightly injured.

Sunday School Program.

The Lutesville Circuit Sunday School Conference will convene at Glen Allen, at 10 o'clock, a. m., May 14, 1892. We cordially invite everybody to attend.

PROGRAM.

1. The design of the Sunday School.
 2. What are the greatest hindrances to the success of the Sunday School?
 3. How can we best secure the attendance and co-operation of parents?
 4. How can we best create and maintain the interests of the Sunday School?
 5. Is the Sunday School more important than the preaching of the Word? and how can we influence children to remain for public worship?
 6. Can the Sunday School do anything to prevent Sabbath-breaking? If so, how?
- A. P. Wynn, P. O.
